

I found the evening with Elizabeth enjoyable and fascinating, as I had not been aware of the importance of the personal history of the accused in juries' decisions on the death penalty. The conscientious and incredibly detailed work she does (sometimes two years on a single case) is hugely valuable and she is an excellent speaker. Thanks to all involved in organizing this event.

Nick Bell / 10 29 2018